

Privacy Policy

Football Federation SA Inc (FFSA) recognises that privacy is important and that an individual has the right to control his or her Personal Information. FFSA is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals on whom it collects Personal Information.

FFSA's Privacy Policy is based on the National Privacy Principles (NPPs) in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and governs how FFSA handles the personal information FFSA collects, uses, discloses and stores on:

- (a) football participants, including Players, Officials and Agents (Participants);
- (b) persons who register for any FFSA sanctioned accreditation or licensing program;
- (c) persons who purchase tickets to Matches, including National Championship, National League and National Team Matches;
- (d) persons who register to any football membership program, participation program, newsletter or promotional offer; or (collectively referred to as Constituents).

This policy relates to Personal Information on Constituents.

1. COLLECTION

1.1 FFSA will not collect personal information from a Constituent unless the information is necessary for one or more of FFSA's functions or activities.

1.2 FFSA collects personal information about a Constituent for the following primary purposes:

- (a) compliance with FFSA Statutes, including the administration and development of football (if the Constituent is a Participant);
- (b) organisation, conduct and promotion of Competitions and Matches;
- (c) direct communication by Football Administrators to a Constituent; and
- (d) disclosure to Football Partners (unless a Constituent has indicated that he or she does not want to receive any communication from Football Partners).

1.3 Where it is reasonable and practicable to do so, FFSA must collect personal information about Constituents only from the Constituent. If that Constituent is a Minor, FFSA may collect personal information from that Minor's parent or legal guardian.

1.4 FFSA must collect personal information from a Constituent only through relevant forms approved by FFSA from time to time.

1.5 If FFSA collects personal information about a Constituent from someone other than the Constituent (or the Constituent's parent or legal guardian), FFSA must take reasonable steps to ensure the Constituent is made aware of the matters listed in clause 1.6, except to the extent that making the individual aware of those matters would pose a serious threat to the life or health of any individual.

1.6 Before or at the time of collection of personal information (or if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after), FFSA must take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is aware of:

- (a) the identity of FFSA and how to contact it;
- (b) the fact that the Constituent can gain access to the information held on him or her;
- (c) the purposes for which the information is collected;
- (d) the organisations (or types of organisations) to which FFSA usually discloses information of that kind;
- (e) any law that requires the information to be collected; and
- (f) the main consequences (if any) for the Constituent if all or part of the information is not provided.

For the purposes of assisting compliance with this requirement, FFSA keeps a register of standard forms containing the required notice for the particular purpose for which the information is collected. Where directed by FFSA, Member Federations, Competition Administrators and Clubs must use these forms.

2. USE AND DISCLOSURE

2.1 FFSA will not use or disclose personal information about a Constituent for a purpose other than the primary purpose of collection (the secondary purpose) unless:

- (a) the Constituent has consented to the use or disclosure;
- (b) both of the following apply:

- (i) the secondary purpose is related to the primary purpose of collection and, if the personal information is sensitive information, directly related to the primary purpose of collection; and
- (ii) the Constituent would reasonably expect FFSA to use or disclose the information for the secondary purpose;
- (c) FFSA reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent:
  - (i) a serious and imminent threat to an individual's life, health or safety; or
  - (ii) a serious threat to public health or public safety;
- (d) FFSA has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, and uses or discloses the personal information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting its concerns to relevant persons or authorities;
- (e) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
- (f) FFSA reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for one or more of the purposes specified in NPP 2.1(h) by or on behalf of a law enforcement body. If FFSA uses or discloses personal information on this basis, it must make a written note of the use or disclosure.

2.2 FFSA may use the personal information of Constituents for the secondary purpose of direct communication by a football administrator with which the Constituent has an indirect relationship, if FFSA has the consent of the Constituent for such use. In other cases, if the information is not sensitive information, FFSA may use the information for the secondary purpose of direct communication only if the following are satisfied:

- (a) it is impracticable to seek the Constituent's consent before that use;
- (b) FFSA will not charge the Constituent for giving effect to a request by that Constituent not to receive direct communications;
- (c) the Constituent has not made a request to FFSA not to receive direct communication;
- (d) FFSA always prominently displays a notice that the Constituent may express a wish not to receive any further direct communication; and
- (e) each written direct communication by FFSA with the Constituent sets out FFSA's contact details including business address, telephone and fax numbers, and email address.

2.3 FFSA may disclose personal information to ticketing agents, mailhouses or other similar organisations for the purpose of implementing the primary purposes, including implementing ticket requests and communicating football-related offers. FFSA requires these organisations to keep contact details confidential and only use them for the designated purpose.

2.4 Despite clause 2.1, FFSA may disclose health information about a Participant to a person who is responsible for that Participant if:

- (a) the Participant:
  - (i) is physically or legally incapable of giving consent to the disclosure; or
  - (ii) physically cannot communicate consent to the disclosure;
- (b) a natural person (the carer) providing a health service for FFSA is satisfied that either:
  - (i) the disclosure is necessary to provide appropriate care or treatment of a Participant; or
  - (ii) the disclosure is made for compassionate reasons;
- (c) the disclosure is not contrary to any wish:
  - (i) expressed by a Participant before a Participant became unable to give or communicate consent; and
  - (ii) of which the carer is aware, or of which the carer could reasonably be expected to be aware; and
- (d) the disclosure is limited to the extent reasonable and necessary for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (b).

2.5 For the purposes of clause 2.4, a person is responsible for a Participant if the person is in relation to that Participant:

- (a) a parent or guardian;
- (b) a child or sibling and at least 18 years old;
- (c) a spouse or defacto spouse;
- (d) a relative, at least 18 years old and a member of the Participant's household;
- (e) exercising an enduring power of attorney granted by the Participant that is exercisable in relation to decisions about the Participant's health;
- (f) a person who has an intimate personal relationship with the Participant; or
- (g) a person nominated by the Participant to be contacted in case of emergency.

2.6 In clause 2.5:

child includes an adopted child, a step child and a foster child.

parent includes a step parent, adoptive parent and a foster parent.

relative means a grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, nephew or niece.

sibling includes a half brother, half sister, adoptive brother, adoptive sister, step brother, step sister, foster brother and foster sister.

3. DATA QUALITY

FFSA will take reasonable steps to make sure that the personal information it collects, stores, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up to date.

4. DATA SECURITY

4.1 FFSA will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

4.2 Where FFSA enters into a contract with any person and FFSA's personal information about Constituents could be disclosed to or otherwise accessed by that contractor, FFSA must include provisions protecting privacy of that information in the contract. FFSA General Counsel must be consulted for more specific contractual provisions contemplating the disclosure of FFSA's personal information on Constituents to contractors.

4.3 FFSA will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de identify personal information if it is no longer needed for any purpose for which the information may be used or disclosed under clause 2.

5. OPENNESS

5.1 On a Constituent's request, FFSA will take reasonable steps to let that Constituent know, generally, what sort of personal information it holds, for what purposes, and how it collects, holds, uses and discloses that information. Generally, all such requests by Constituents should be directed to the FFSA General Counsel.

5.2 FFSA will set out in a document clearly expressed policies on its management of personal information.

6. ACCESS AND CORRECTION

6.1 FFSA will provide a Constituent with access to the personal information it holds on that Constituent on request by that Constituent, except to the extent that FFSA is not required to do so under NPP 6: Access and Correction.

6.2 All requests for access to and/or correction of personal information by a Constituent must be immediately directed to the FFSA General Counsel. In assessing the request for access and/or correction, the FFSA General Counsel must observe and comply with the procedures in clause 6 of this policy.

6.3 Before supplying any personal information to a Constituent FFSA must be reasonably satisfied as to the identity of the Constituent (for example, by asking to see the Constituent's passport or driver's licence).

7. IDENTIFIERS

7.1 FFSA will not adopt as its own identifier an identifier of a Constituent that has been assigned by a Commonwealth government agency or any person on behalf of a Commonwealth agency.

identifier includes a number assigned by an organisation to uniquely identify a Constituent for the purposes of the organisation's operations. However, a Constituent's name is not an identifier.

8. ANONYMITY

Wherever it is lawful and practicable, a Constituent (other than a Participant for registration purposes) will have the option of not identifying himself or herself when entering transactions with FFSA.

9. TRANSBORDER DATA FLOWS

9.1 FFSA may transfer personal information about a Constituent to someone who is in a foreign country only if:

- (a) that Constituent consents to the transfer;
- (b) the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between that Constituent and FFSA, or for the implementation of pre contractual measures taken in response to a Constituent's request;
- (c) the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of that Constituent between FFSA and a third party;
- (d) all of the following apply:
  - (i) the transfer is for the benefit of a Constituent;
  - (ii) it is impracticable to obtain the consent of a Constituent to that transfer; and
  - (iii) if it were practicable to obtain such consent, a Constituent would be likely to give it; or
- (e) FFSA has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the information that it has transferred will not be held, used or disclosed by the recipient of the information inconsistently with the NPPs (for example, by adopting appropriate contractual clauses).

9.2 Clause 9.1 does not apply to the transfer of personal information in accordance with FFSA Statutes, including to facilitate the registration of a Player by an international football association.

10. SENSITIVE INFORMATION

10.1 FFSA will not collect sensitive information about a Constituent who is not also a Participant.

10.2 FFSA will not collect sensitive information about a Participant (except as permitted in NPP 10 of the Privacy Act), unless:

- (a) specifically permitted to do so under FFSA Statutes, including for health, medical and anti-doping testing purposes and investigation of Grievances;
- (b) that Participant has consented;
- (c) the collection is required by law;
- (d) the collection is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of any individual, where that Participant:
  - (i) is physically or legally incapable of giving consent to the collection; or
  - (ii) physically cannot communicate consent to the collection; or
- (e) the collection is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal or equitable claim.

11. INQUIRIES PROCEDURE

11.1 All complaints and inquiries concerning personal information of a Constituent must be directed to the FFSA General Counsel at info@ffsa.com.au. This will ensure that all such matters will be dealt with:

- (a) consistently across FFSA (rather than having a series of different approaches across FFSA); and
- (b) in accordance with applicable law, including the Privacy Act.
