

RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL (RSA) TRAINING

The Good Sports Program is coordinating Responsible Service of Alcohol training for sporting club bar staff.

Do you know your obligations?

Do you need to know more?

Would your staff / volunteers benefit from training in this area?

The course will cover:

Alcohol and the Law	Drink driving issues	Standard drinks
Your legal responsibilities	Recognising intoxication	Dealing with problem patrons
Strategies for responsible service

The Good Sports Program is offering a discounted price (usually $85 per person) for Responsible Service of Alcohol training. This course is recognised by the Office of the Liquor and Gambling Commissioner South Australia and is designed for staff and volunteers working behind the bar in a sporting club.

Cost:

- $15 For: - all current Good Sports clubs; or
- sports clubs that register with the Good Sports Program and book a presentation at a club committee meeting before 31st March 2005.
- $25 Sports clubs that register for the Good Sports Program but do not book a meeting.
- $85 All other sporting club participants.

Each participant will receive a Statement of Attendance and an invoice will be sent to the club.
