Eligibility

To be eligible to be a Director of the FFSA a person must not hold, or must cease to hold any disqualifying position not more than seven days after being elected or appointed a Director.

A disqualifying position is defined as

- A. a position as an employee of the Association, of a Zone Council, of an Association or of FFA; or
- B. any Official Position.

(Refer Section 10.10)

Nominations Committee

The Directors must establish a Nominations Committee. The composition and functions of this Committee are set out in section 10.12 of the FFSA Constitution. The Nominations Committee will assess each candidate for election as a Director against the following:

- A. their commitment to a strong governance regime for Football in Australia;
- B. their commitment to the Association developing policies and strategies for Football generally throughout the State;
- C. their not being involved in activities which could, or which reasonably could be perceived to, materially interfere with their ability to act in the best interests of the Association;
- D. their interest or any relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the nominee's ability to act in the best interests of the Association; and
- E. their ability to satisfy the Core Competencies and any other competencies established by the Directors.

(Refer Section 10.12)

Core Competencies for Directors

Candidates nominating for the position of Director must possess each of the following:

- A. Demonstrated leadership experience as either a senior manager through holding or having held a general manager, partner or chief executive office position in an organisation of a size and/or turnover similar to or greater than that of the Association or a senior leadership position in elite football;
- B. An understanding and appreciation of the duties and responsibilities of the role of Director demonstrated by membership of the AICD, or relevant education or experience serving on or working with other boards of directors;
- C. A commitment to and record of ethical behaviour including not having been the subject of an adverse finding or the current subject of an inquiry or investigation by any statutory, regulatory or law enforcement authority or agency including a disciplinary body of FIFA, the AFC, FFA or the Association relating to any serious ethical matter; and
- D. must possess at least one of the following:
 - a. legal qualifications (LLB or equivalent);
 - b. accounting/finance qualifications (CA, CPA, CFA or equivalent);
 - c. knowledge or experience of elite football through experience as a player, coach or official at FFSA Premier League level or above;
 - d. football administration experience through serving as a club or association president;
 - e. business experience and/or qualifications (MBA or senior management experience);
 - f. regional insight (resides outside the Adelaide metropolitan region);
 - g. technology experience and/or qualifications (IT, Technology degree, CIO or equivalent position); or
 - h. marketing, communications, government relations or public relations experience at a senior level.

(Refer Section 10.12)
